

CONGRESSMAN HILL ADDRESSES DOCTORS AT FLEMING'S MILL

Troy, Ala., Aug. 21.—The first meeting of the Southeastern Division of the Alabama Medical Society was held at Fleming's Mill today. Physicians were present from all over southeast Alabama. One of the features of the day was a delicious barbecue which was served at noon and was prepared by specialists in that line from Coffee county. Another most pleasurable feature was a reading "Way Down South in Dixie" given by Mrs. Charles Henderson.

The officers of the association are: Dr. J. M. Watkins, Troy, president; Dr. W. A. Stanley, Enterprise, vice-president; Dr. W. A. Lewis, Enterprise, secretary-treasurer. Dr. W. C. Braswell, of Elba, gave the welcome address and the reply was made for the visiting physicians by Dr. S. W. Welch, Montgomery. Prominent doctors giving papers were: Dr. Seale Harris, Birmingham; Dr. T. E. Bowden, Hubbard, Montgomery; Dr. A. R. Simons, Dothan; Dr. W. W. Harper, Selma; Dr. Carol W. Allen, New Orleans, La.; Dr. M. A. Fort, Atlanta, Ga.; Dr. J. Love, Opelika; Dr. O. N. Edge, Troy.

Congressman Lister Hill entertained the doctors by a brilliant address on "The Physician," which was given just before noon.

Prof. J. A. Boyd, of Troy, contributed some tricks of magic and slight of hand in a half hour's fun.

The meeting was a decided success from every viewpoint.

SINGING AT GOODMAN

The Sunny South Musical Convention met at Goodman on the 18th of this month and had their third quarter. The meeting was called to order by Bro. N. M. Johnson, who acted as president. All Bro. R. E. Blacklock arrived. Part of the arrangement committee being absent, the following were named to act in their stead: Bro. A. C. Stricklin, Curd Bowen and B. Horn, who then reported the following leaders to direct the class, two songs each: Leonard Bennon, Escher Harris, J. C. Gannon, J. T. Jones, J. C. Second lesson: Roman Johnson, Charlie Stephenson, A. G. Peacock, Miss Eva Martin. Recesse one hour for dinner—of which there was enough for two such crowds.

Third lesson: R. H. Herring, Seth Thompson, G. W. Shiver, John E. Blacklock, Recesse.

Fourth lesson: Clarence Stricklin, Viola Stricklin, Leon Phillips, Rouhane Blacklock, Recesse. Fifth lesson: C. C. Peacock, N. M. Johnson and B. Horn. There was a number of solos and duets rendered. The audience was charmed when Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stricklin sang a duet. They are always welcomed on the floor. The organists for the day were: Clarence Stricklin, Viola Stricklin, Eva Martin, Mrs. D. G. Wood, Mrs. Weeks. They did their best and the class appreciates them too.

The convention wants to convey to the people of the community their sincere thanks for the kindness and hospitality shown them. The writer has never seen such a size crowd, where such nice behavior was had. The singing was the best that was ever heard at Goodman or any other place, so the people say.

Respectfully submitted, R. E. Blacklock, Pres., B. Horn, Secretary.

SMALL BROTHERS FAIL TO STOP SISTER'S DROWNING

Gadsden, Ala., August 17.—Despite frantic efforts of two small brothers to prevent her, Miss Lammie McCleskey, 17, leaped from a ferry over Coosa river late yesterday and was drowned.

Miss McCleskey was the daughter of Robert McCleskey of Pollard Bend, Coffee county. The little boy said to have clung desperately to her sister's dress in an effort to prevent her jumping into the river.

CONTRACT GIVEN FOR GENEVA MILL

Geneva, Ala., Aug. 17.—The contract was let for the construction of the Geneva Cotton Mill to D. H. Morris, Jr., of Geneva. The price being around $60,000. The building will be of brick construction with hard wood floors and composition roof, the dimensions being 325x106 feet. The work is to be completed in five months.

Quite a number of contractors were in Geneva last week from various cities, submitting bids for this work. However, all bids were declined, something like $10,000 being saved by contracting with the local bidder.

MANY CANDIDATES IN RACE FOR PLACES TO BE FILLED SEPT. 3RD.

The special election called for Monday, September 3rd, has brought forth a long string of candidates and some hot canvassing will be done before that time.

When the time for qualification had closed there was a total of eleven candidates for Treasurer of Coffee county. Only two, however, qualified for the office of Superintendent of Education.

While the time for a campaign is short, we look for active work from all the candidates, and the "deer peep" will no doubt get many a hand shake before the 10th. All aspirants for both the offices are good fellows, and as there are no issues involved except that of rendering efficient service makes the contest all the more interesting and the "guessers" are having a hard time picking the winner.

TWO NEGROES LYNCHED BY GEORGIA MOBS

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 17.—Two negroes were lynched in Georgia Friday. Early Friday morning a crowd of men broke in the Bleckley County jail at Cochran, Ga., took a negro named Aleck Harris, charged with attacking a white woman, carried him 12 miles from town on the Dublin road, strung him to a tree and shot him to death. The mob was said to have been disguised and traveled in about 12 automobiles from which the license numbers had been removed.

The second lynching occurred in Houston county where Lee Green, negro, was taken from officers, carried to the house of the woman he is alleged to have attacked. There he was strung to a tree and shot to death. This mob is said to have been composed of about 75 men. The two counties in which the lynchings took place are in the center of the state, close to each other.

The Bleckley negro was serving a term on the chain gang for burglary at the time he was alleged to have committed the crime for which he was lynched. It took place last Wednesday. The mob was a hole in the county jail and saved its way through a steel cage to get the negro. The sheriff was absent and no other jail officials were on duty.

PLANE CRASH

Hope Field, Camp Bragg, N. C., Aug. 20.—Alfred Demasquita, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Durham, N. C., publisher of The Durham, N. C. Sun and Fayetteville, N. C. Observer, and an army aviator named Reese were killed here late Monday afternoon when an airplane crashed with them.

It was learned later that the aviator killed was Sgt. Edmund Reese, of New York City. The plane is said to have gone into a nose dive just after taking off the ground. Both men are said to have been instantly killed and the plane was destroyed by fire. The plane was privately owned. It is said but a board of inquiry has been appointed to investigate the accident.

according to the information.

In both cases when the sheriffs reached the scenes the mobs were said already to have dispersed.

"I expect to use all the power of my office to prevent disorder and lawlessness in Georgia," Governor Walker said today on hearing of the lynching of Green. The governor said he would make an investigation. He announced no official reports had been received at his office. The governor said any good citizen regrets lynchings, as the courts should be permitted to proceed in an orderly manner no matter how trying the circumstances may be in some instances."

FIRST BALE NEW COTTON SOLD LAST WEDNESDAY FOR 35 CENTS

Elba's first bale of 1923 cotton was placed on the market on Wednesday afternoon of last week. The bale was sold at auction and brought 35 cents per pound.

The bale was grown by Mr. Jim King, Elba, Ala., Route 2, and was bought by Lindsey & Son Mercantile Co. The bale weighed 376 pounds, and was grown by the Taylor Gin Company.

Soon after Mr. King brought his bale to the gin, Mr. Jake Pearce, who lives just outside of town brought in a bale also.

The first bale for the year 1922 was sold at Elba on August 1st, three weeks earlier than this year. Last year's first bale brought 36 cents per pound, and was grown by Mr. John Mack Stokes.

CONTRACTORS ENGAGED IN SANDING STATE HIGHWAY.

Enterprise Ledger says: Of course everyone knows that the State Highway is a "graded road" but we have our doubts as to whether the language would be printable if expressed in language, as to what "grade" the average person has considered the road to be.

In dry weather the road has resembled corduroy, and in wet weather it has been a literal loblolly; the former caused cars to "turkey trot" and the latter caused them to "shimmy."

But now the contractors are busily engaged in giving the project the finishing touch necessary to completion. A layer of sand is being spread on the surface of clay, and we understand that this is to be plowed, harrowed and rolled. Let us hope every possible hope that when this program is completed that the road will be everything desired.

MARRIAGE OF MISS COVINGTON AND MR. MARSH

A wedding of much interest to the young couple's friends was that of Miss Gussie Mae Covington, of Elba, and Mr. Frank Marsh, of New Brockton, Ala., who were married at New Brockton, Ala., Sunday morning, after the patient had had a good night's sleep and eaten a hearty breakfast. After the first attack he rallied, and about eleven o'clock he was first rate for a good dinner. But the attack comes again at 7:30 and he cannot endure anything but a good sound sleep. He is now doing better, or will, push, energy, determination, respect for Sunday, for the Bible, and the church; mix with his friends, and take at 9:45 every Sunday morning.

There will be held at Liberty next Saturday, the 4th Quarterly Conference of the two churches—Elba and Mission. There will be dinner at 9:45 a.m. and a large attendance is expected. Reports will be given by the Sunday School Superintendent, President of the Woman's Missionary Society, and the chairman of the Board of Trustees.

Support by your presence, the church of your choice, join with those who are helping in this community to maintain the great ideals of life.

WOULD EXEMPT RURAL CARRIERS FROM LI-CENSE TAX.

Rural letter carriers of Alabama will be exempt from payment of automobile license tax, if a bill introduced Tuesday by Fred Fite of Jefferson becomes law. The bill provides that motor vehicles used by rural carriers shall be exempted from license payment.

Representative Fite introduced an other bill to allow members of the state tax commission to ride on railroad passes when engaged in actual business of the state.

HERE'S SOME QUICK ACTION AND REAL SERVICE

Andalusia Star says: An Andalusia youth, who recently enlisted in the navy at the local recruiting station, telling the officer that he was of legal age, was sent to Birmingham for examination and acceptance in the navy. The boy's father learned of the enlistment, went to the local West Union office and sent a telegram to the Birmingham recruiting office protesting the enlistment. The boy was immediately put on an airplane which was just leaving for Pensacola, and was dropped off at the Andalusia landing field at 11:30 A. M. the same day, just two and one-half hours after the message was sent.

NO EDITORS ARE IN FEDERAL PENITENTIARY.

Of more than 5,000 prisoners in Leavenworth, Kansas, Federal prison there is not a single newspaper reporter or news editor. The warden declared much difficulty has been experienced in getting out the prison paper because of the lack of reporters and news editors. Volunteers were asked for and no one reported, so a survey was made and it was found that out of 5,000 or more men there was not a reporter or an editor inside the prison walls. —Publishers, Auxiliary.

BOLL WEVIL DRIVES CAR

Certain gentlemen of this community went out to crawl up his car and found a boll weevil sitting in the steering wheel. He said: "Bud, what are you doing on that wheel? You can't drive a car." "Yes I can," said Billy. "I drove 500 under the shelter last fall and I am going to make it 5,000 this year."

GENIUSES

Senator Moses, of New Hampshire, relates the following instance of the way the town authorities used to resolve up in his State:

"Resolved, That we build a new jail."

"Resolved, That we build the new jail out of material which the old jail is composed of; and

"Resolved, That we will not tear down the old jail until the new jail is finished."—Ex.

BAY MINETTE MAN IS KILLED BY TRACTOR

R. M. Nelson of Bay Minette, engaged in grading the roads of the Second District, was instantly killed last Thursday afternoon, Aug. 16th, when the tractor which he was operating overturned and pinned him beneath it. He and Charles Bright were working the machine, Nelson on the tractor and Bright on the grader, when the accident occurred. They were grading on the Pensacola Road about fifteen miles from Bay Minette, and in making a turn drove into a shallow ditch on the side of the road. The tractor stuck on the side of the ditch and efforts were made to turn it back into the highway. Mr. Bright went across the road to get a pry pole to try and force the front wheels of the tractor around in order to make the turn. As he reached for the pole Mr. Nelson, who was left with the outfit, started the engine of the tractor up and tried to make it pull out of the ditch. Mr. Bright looked towards the machine just in time to see it turn over backwards. Not hearing from Mr. Nelson he rushed to find him pinned beneath the radiator of the tractor. Mr. Bright unable to move the heavy machine ran three miles to the nearest house where he could get a team of mules to pull the tractor off Mr. Nelson. From appearances, Mr. Nelson was instantly killed as he failed to make any outcry after the accident. He was buried in Bay Minette on Friday, August 17, and leaves a widow and two small children.—Baldwin County News, Foley.

GEORGE SITARIS BURNED WITH MOLYBEN LEAD

Toy Herald says: George Sitaris, brother-in-law to Victor Balak, owner of the Riverside Cafe and Mary's Place, suffered a very painful accident Wednesday morning while working with molybdenum lead fastening a counter stool to the floor at Mary's Place when the accident occurred, which almost cost him his sight. Tuesday he fastened the stool to the floor and Wednesday poured hot lead around the ment, which was still wet, causing an explosion. The lead flew in his face, several particles going into his eyes. The hot metal covered his eyelids and but for the fact that his eyes were involuntarily closed when the explosion occurred, his sight would have been destroyed. The physician who extracted the bits of lead stated that the eyes could be saved. A piece of lead as large as a man's hand was plastered over his eyes. The right eye is now seriously injured, being badly scalded and scarred.

FORD OFFER IS ONLY LOGICAL ONE SAYS OSCAR UNDERWOOD

Florence, Ala., Aug. 25.—"I am elected to the highest office in the country the heart's desire of the people of the Tennessee Valley will be accomplished." This was the statement of Senator Oscar W. Underwood in an address here today in which he declared the "government would be a fool not to accept the Ford offer for Muscle Shoals."

The address delivered on the campus of the state Normal school was the climax of a full day's program held in honor of the distinguished visitor. The day's program included a visit to Wilson Dam Saturday morning, a luncheon at the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce headquarters at 3:30 o'clock and a parade more than two and a half miles in length.

Mr. Underwood announced at the opening of his speech that his remarks would be a "story of Muscle Shoals as seen from the fighting line and his opinion of what must be done in the future."

He told of the difficulties the shoals presented in the early days of Alabama as a barrier to navigation on the Upper Tennessee and of the indomitable fight waged by General Wheeler, Senator John T. Morgan and others for building of locks and dams.

He expressed amazement at the delay encountered by recent developments when the great power possibilities, together with improved navigation are considered.

Importance as Plant He stated that Muscle Shoals plants are the only ones in America capable of producing sufficient nitrates to meet the demands of agriculture in time of peace and supply explosives in time of war and that while they are standing idle, nitrates are being manufactured from the air in Germany, England, France and Italy.

The Senator said that the aid of Henry Ford was the only practical one that had been made and was an acceptance of the offer made to all private individuals and corporations in the country by Secretary Weeks when he was trying to solve the problem of disposing of the plants.

"The Secretary went fishing for a minute and he caught a whale," he said.

To Continue Fight.

Mr. Underwood said that the completion of the Wilson Dam is now assured beyond question and that the utilization of the water power was also assured. That private operation would be more successful and efficient than government operation and that he intended to use his influence for the acceptance of the Ford offer.

The address of welcome on behalf of the people of the Cities was delivered by Dr. J. H. Willingham, president of the Normal school. He paid a high tribute to Mr. Underwood and his able efforts on behalf of Muscle Shoals.

Following Dr. Willingham Judge Ed B. Almon, congressman from this district, made a brief introductory speech in which he told of Mr. Underwood's leadership in the senate and of his untiring service in carrying through beneficial legislation.

He ended his remarks by saying "in 1923 it's Muscle Shoals, in 1924 it will be Ford Shoals, in 1925 it's Senator Underwood, in 1926 it will be President Underwood."

Big Demonstration. The Senator's visit to the district was the occasion for one of the largest demonstrations ever held in honor of a public official in this district. He arrived in Sheffield last night and was the guest of his friend, Judge J. H. Nathan. He was carried to the Dam at 10 o'clock this morning on a special train, accompanied by a large delegation of representatives from the commercial and civic bodies of Florence, Sheffield and Tusculum.

The luncheon held at the Sheffield Chamber was attended by about one hundred. On

FLOGGERS CONFESS AND GET TWO YEARS

Tulsa, Okla., Aug. 23.—Coming as a climax to the tenth day of Adjutant General Baird H. Markham's investigation of floggings in Tulsa county, Ben F. Sikes, Grover C. Sikes, and Earl Sack of Broken Arrow, self confessed members of the Ku Klux Klan pleaded guilty tonight to rioting charges before District Judge W. B. Will and were sentenced to serve two years each in the state penitentiary.

This is the first instance on record in which klansmen have confessed in court that they were members of a flogging party and the first time sentence has ever been passed in the entire country or a klansman for participation in a mob outrage, state officers here believe.

The Sikes brothers and Sack were brought before Acting County Judge Luther Lane yesterday and their arraignment and preliminary hearing. Thirty minutes later they had entered pleas of guilty before District Judge Williams and were sentenced after Ed Crossland, their attorney, and assistant Attorney General C. W. King recommended they be given the minimum punishment two years. The maximum is 10 years.

Simultaneously in county court, A. M. Calloway, W. M. Bills, Avery Barbour, T. V. Venetour and W. M. Lewis were arraigned and pled not guilty on information charging them with participating in the flogging to which the Sikes brothers and Sack admitted they were parties—that of Ben Wagner a German farmer near Broken Arrow.

He expressed amazement at the delay encountered by recent developments when the great power possibilities, together with improved navigation are considered.

On this occasion he was introduced by Judge Nathan who delivered a very impressive address of welcome. The senator made a short response, following which the two resolutions, commending him for the work he had done in behalf of Muscle Shoals and the Ford offer were passed.

EGG LAYING RATION FOR BIG PRODUCTION

The continual development of a larger poultry industry in the county, which has been stimulated by agitation to provide a better market for poultry products, has brought many requests to representatives of the Extension Service for information regarding poultry rations. John E. Ivey, poultry specialist, recommends a dry mash composed of 20 pounds of corn meal, 20 pounds of wheat shorts, 20 pounds of wheat bran, 20 pounds of ground oats, 1 pound of salt, and 4 pounds of bone meal.

Mr. Ivey calls attention to the fact that this amount makes up little more than 100 pounds, and that larger or smaller amounts can be made by increasing or lowering the ingredients proportionately.

This is known as a home mixture and is recommended because it has been found to be a very successful egg laying mash and also because it is cheaper. It should be placed in a self-feeder and kept before laying hens continuously.

Along with this dry mash Mr. Ivey states that a grain ration composed of equal parts by weight of corn, wheat, and oats be fed morning and night, with the heaviest feeding at night. Plenty of fresh water and green material are also fed this way maximum egg production should follow.

JOLT CAUSES DEATH

Mobile, Ala., August 27.—Matthew Keith, 17, electrical engineer, met death in a peculiar manner Sunday. He was a passenger in a taxicab that went into a hole on a county road and was thrown up again at the front seat. He was rushed to a hospital but in the ambulance passed through the gate of the institution. Physicians reported that a broken rib penetrated his lungs.

Safer Than Ever---

A few weeks ago a small bank in another state closed its doors. The people of that community became alarmed and started a "run" on the National Bank of that town. The Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis learned of this and they rushed to the aid of the National Bank with money enough to meet all the demands of the depositors. The trouble quickly melted away when the people learned that the great Federal Reserve Bank was behind their local institution, making it safe even in times like that.

The great banking system now has the power to adjust itself to all problems. That means greater safety and greater service.

WOMAN FOUND IN WELL

Carrollton, Ala., Aug. 17.—What appears to have been an attempt at self destruction, Mrs. F. C. Allman, who resides in the Marvin Chapel neighborhood, a few miles east of this place, was found in the bottom of a 60-foot deserted well Tuesday afternoon, bringing to a close a search instituted by relatives and neighbors.

Mrs. Allman, it is said, has been in ill health for a number of years, and this is assigned as the reason for the act. She was rescued. In answer to a question as to why she committed the deed, she replied that she was tired of living.

Mrs. Allman is about 60 years of age and is well known in the community where she resides. Due to her advanced age little hope is entertained for her recovery, the family physician announcing that her condition is serious.

FARMER AMBUSHED

Gadsden, Ala., August 25.—According to news received from Fort Payne, Jasper Jones, a farmer of the Pen Ridge community of DeKalb County, was shot from ambush Thursday while he was driving along the public road. Twenty-seven shots from a shot gun lodged in his neck, head, shoulders and back. He fell out of his buggy and tried to regain his seat, but his left arm was paralyzed by shot and he had to wait until a neighbor came along. Jones says he thinks he knows the assassin, but has not named him.

MAN SERIOUSLY CUT WHILE OPENING KNIFE

Florida News says: Mr. E. Huggins, who farms just west of Lockhart, seriously cut himself in the bowels with a sharp pocket knife last Friday when he attempted to defend himself from the attack of a vicious dog that jumped at him without warning.

Mr. Huggins was walking through his cotton field when the dog unexpectedly made for him from his hiding place in the cotton foliage. Mr. Huggins' first thought was to defend himself with his pocket knife, which was his only available weapon. Mr. Huggins got his knife partly open with his hand and then thrust the blade against his pants to finish opening it, just as many others have done many times, but he evidently pressed the knife against himself heavily, as it cut through his pants and into his bowels, severing the intestines in two places.

Mr. Huggins returned to the house not realizing that he was seriously hurt. But after a couple of hours, a physician was sent for, who discovered the knife wound in a serious condition, and who took him to a hospital in Andalusia for an operation.

Last reports state that he is doing well and safely on the road to recovery.

Mr. Huggins is a good farmer, and highly respected by everybody. He was not injured by the attack of the dog.

NEGRO IS FOUND SLAIN IN DITCH

Jacksonville, Fla., Aug. 25.—The body of a negro, riddled with bullets and his hands tied together with handkerchiefs, was found late last night in a ditch along King's road, three miles from Jacksonville by residents who had been aroused by shots and had seen two negroes being pursued down the road by four men. The men it was said, were firing at the negroes with pistols.

Both negroes were seen to fall in the ditch. An automobile was following the four men and four other cars were said to have been stopped about half a mile away. After the shooting the four pursuers jumped into the car and started towards Jacksonville. A few minutes later the other cars were seen coming towards this city and another car believed to have been one of those seen about half a mile from the spot, proceeded northward.

After the departure of the men the second negro jumped from the ditch and disappeared in a clump of trees. He appeared to be unarmed. The officers were called but have not been able to advance a theory for the killing. There have been no offenses of any kind reported to authorities that might have caused a lynching, it was said.

ONLY BLUE WOMAN IN WORLD IS BIG PUZZLE TO SAVANTS.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 23.—Scientists of this city were Tuesday calling attention to Mrs. Leila Leopold, 73, of Magazine St., New Orleans, believed to be the only "Blue" woman in the world. The death of Fred Walters, New York's famous blue man, turned the eyes of the scientific world up on the mysterious case of Mrs. Leopold.

For more than 20 years, according to her relatives, she has been a mystery to the great scientists of the country and a fortune has been spent in attempting to determine the change of coloring in her skin from creamy whiteness to a deep blue.

A number of specialists who have examined Mrs. Leopold during the last 20 years have concluded that her blueness is due to a defect in one of the heart valves. Following the death of her husband in 1879 her skin began turning blue. Some believe grief caused the change.

AIRMEN KILLED WHEN PLANES CRASH AT 3,000 FOOT LEVEL

Pensacola, Fla., Aug. 22.—Undergoing combat practice which would have completed their aviation training course, Captain George P. Hill and First Lieutenant Cornelius McFadden, both of the United States Marine Corps were killed when a plane which they were flying collided with another machine piloted by First Lieutenant M. A. Richal, in mid air and fell more than 3,000 feet at the naval air station here today.

An investigation of the accident has been ordered by the navy department at Washington. Richal miraculously escaped death when his machine went into a long glide after all tail controls and the rear portion of the fuselage had been severed by the compact with the other plane. His ship, a Voight type plane, was upside down during the long fall of 3,000 feet and was in that position when it landed on a paved highway leading from Pensacola to the naval air station. The running gear was undamaged. Richal suffered no broken bones, and unless complications set in from possible minor internal injuries, he has an excellent chance for recovery, physicians said.

Death of McFadden and Hill was instantaneous. McFadden was piloting, was attempting to bring his machine into formation with three others, when the wing of his plane struck the tail of the one piloted by Richal. Dropping about two hundred feet after collision, the wings of McFadden's machine collapsed. The wreck crashed in a densely wooded area. The plane was demolished and the bodies of fliers badly mangled.

The three officers were of an aviation class, which reported at Pensacola in January, 1923. They came from Quantico, Va., and would have finished their training program early in September. McFadden, whose wife and child are here, lived in Philadelphia. Hill's home was Leominster, Mass., and he was unmarried. Both were 29 years old.

NEGRO MURDERER ACCIDENTALLY TAKES POISON.

Clayton Record says: Joe Gregg, a negro, who was lodged in the Clayton jail the latter part of last week, charged with shooting and killing another negro, Sam Gray, at Eufaula, on last Tuesday night, accidentally took a dose of bi-chloride of mercury the first of this week, which had been prescribed for him by a physician. It was stated that Gregg could not read the directions on the box containing the medicine, and that he had another negro to "read" them for him, and as a result he dissolved one of the tablets in water and drank it. The sheriff was notified and the negro was given medical attention, he was still in a serious condition.

The Alleged Killing
On last Tuesday night, Sam Gray, a negro man, was found dead with a bullet wound through his heart, near the Marcella mill at Eufaula, following an investigation by officers who heard the shot which did the killing.

Gregg was seen making his escape and every effort was made to catch him. He was located Friday night at a negro house several miles north of Eufaula and was turned over to the sheriff and has been locked in the county jail to await a hearing.

REPRESENTATIVE SOLLIE APPEALS TO PEOPLE TO HELP STOP EXTRAVAGANCE AND WASTE.

Conditions exist which the people should know. Persons connected with legislation at the Capitol have lost their bearings and become so drunk on power and extravagance, constitutions must help now or much evil will be done.

It now costs about $15,000,000 annually to run the State and supply present appropriations. Known facts and dependable estimates show that receipts will be less than disbursements this fiscal year by more than $1,000,000. Our current debt October 1st, 1923, will exceed $3,000,000. Of this $2,000,000 is bookkeeping debt, due departments, and $200,000 went to buildings at Speigner and Kilby prison. Of the debt, $250,000 is owing departments that can run without it. An act should pass covering this debt into the general fund. The residue is owing outsiders and the highway department, and must be paid by this administration.

We receive $500,000 this year from gasoline and oil tax. This is now diverted to the counties, and will not be longer available. General depression is such no increases in ad valorem taxes is reasonably probable, under present laws; and we will have $1,750,000 deficit next year, on present financial basis with none of the $3,000,000 paid.

The prospect is that salaries and expenses of officers, secretaries, clerks, experts, agents, and employees on public pay during this administration will greatly exceed those of last; but it is impossible now to know by how much.

The annual licenses sought in appropriation to departments exceed the dreams of avarice. They confidently expect: University, $1,000,000; Auburn, $750,000; Alabama College, $500,000; Normal schools, $250,000; common schools, $1,000,000; medical department, $100,000; other departments, not less than $200,000,—aggregate $4,500,000.

The majority appear determined that the unsold residue of highway bonds, and the entire issue of port bonds must be sold quickly. The added interest on these bonds will be upwards of $1,500,000 annually. Enough of them probably will draw interest next year to add at least $750,000 to our annual interest burden.

If present plans carry we cannot hope to run next year on less than $20,000,000! Our prospect of tax incomes on present bases are less than this by from $6,000,000 to $7,000,000. We must tax new subjects and repeal tax exemptions, or our running deficit for next year will be monstrous!

Under the constitutional rate limit we cannot hope to raise more than $6,000,000 ad valorem taxes. On present rates, we cannot raise more than about $8,000,000 from other subjects now taxed. Taxes on these will have to be almost doubled, to meet next year's demands. If rates on other subjects than property now being taxed are increased as indicated, popular indignation and resentment will run wild.

If we continue at the present rate, every dictate of equity and justice demands that we tax such subjects as incomes, severance values, luxuries, raw materials, manufactured articles, solvent credits and bank deposits. It is damnable unfair to require the subjects now taxed to bear the entire burden of our mad extravagance!

The fiscal and legislative program of expenditures of those in authority in municipalities, counties and the State, including annual budgets, highway and port bonds, district, municipal and county bonds, and anticipated federal road aid, if realized, will exceed $150,000,000 during this administration. At least one-half of this will go to those on the public pay rolls.

The hell wind, army worms, weather and other unfavorable conditions render farming and stock raising unprofitable, in many afflicted areas. During the last three years vast quantities of our farms have been mortgaged to foreign lenders and the Government, often for their market value. If we add personality and realty mortgages to local banks and lenders the totals are appalling.

About one-tenth of our population are on district, municipal, county, state and federal pay-rolls, and surging hordes seek places on their lists. To a unit they propagandize for ever more largess. When to these we add our eleemosynary wards, the youth we educate and the idle rich, the grand total of unproductives is staggering!

How happy in comparison were earlier days, which produced Morgan, Pugh, Pettus, Yancy, Parker, Watts, Brickell, Stone, Houston and other giants who arrested reconstruction ruin, drove dispossers from power, and enthroned democracy, economy and peace.—on budgets of a third to three-quarters of a million dollars annually! Can he be found who maintains that government has increased service ratably with increased expenditure?

The way is hard for the Governor and legislators. We have created bureaus, with increased sub-officials and employees, until their name is legion. They speak only the language of the leech, "give, give, more, more," money and power. Credling them about are hungry hordes seeking like implacements, many of whom have been at the Capitol pulling, surging, toiling, throughout both sessions. Together they torment the Governor and legislators.

The rich industrial and carriers present even a more complex and difficult situation. A large number of legislators are investors with and other large numbers are employed by them. Of course, they uphold their contentions. They also engage an army of skilled lobbyists, from maximum professional talent, constantly present and on their jobs.

The Governor, after all, is mere man, with heart as big as that of an ox, whom it punsently pains to disappoint a pleader and friend. Legislators elected by rural constituents in the main have not the Governor's defensive armor. They have not sufficient experience to fortify them against the wiles of trained experts and lobbyists. Their constituencies do not appear to help them defend themselves, they are compelled to stand and fight alone. It is pathetic to watch their courage and fighting qualities wane till they surrender to superior skill and organized numbers, constantly besieging them separately. Under such conditions we as well expect the Governor and a majority of legislators, at the end of long continued struggles coming in rapid succession, to surrender, effect legislation hurtful to the masses and favorable to bureaus, classes and vested interests, and authorizing mad extravagance.

Whether there is remedy, and if so what, are the pressing questions of the hour. The weekly press believe relief would come from departmental publicity. I accord in this view, to the extent of favoring most of these publicity measures. But they do not go to the core of the disease. If the people will now, through the press and on mass, thunder their resentment; meet spoliemen at the Capitol, and vanquish them; compel the passage of laws protecting appropriations, so they shall be economically applied to the objects intended; and force passage of tax laws that will equalize burden and privilege, many millions of dollars will be saved, and we will enter an era of happiness and peace. Less heroic measures cannot prevail. The morale of legislators is too low, for them now to win the fight alone.

The reforms mentioned do not mean and will not result in retrogression. They mean progress in right direction; for, when we stop wasting our millions, we may apply them to the legitimate objects of government; and, in doing so, attain healthful growth and progress.

Respectfully,
M. SOLLIE.
